

Family Engagement Standards

Overview

- In 2013, San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD) adopted a set of standards for family engagement that acknowledges the importance of good communication between families and schools, and the importance of families as partners in student education.

Importance

- Research has shown that parent engagement positively affects student outcomes. SFUSD has committed to partnering with families in a meaningful way by following the Family Engagement Standards developed by parents, community leaders, and district staff.

Steps to Take

- Review Family Engagement Standards
- Look for ways to engage in your child's education at home, school, or the district
- Join the San Francisco Board of Education Parent Advisory Council, School Site Council, PTA/O, ELAC

Links for more Information

- Family Engagement Standards
- San Francisco Board of Education Parent Advisory Council